

BARGAIN SALES

COPYRIGHTED 1907

LENGTH, 510 FEET

PRICE, $50.10

A big Department Store advertises "Bargain Sales." Before the doors are open an enormous crowd of women has congregated. It is wonderful to see how they fight at the different counters. We see them at the waist counter and at the corset counter. China, hats and groceries, pictures and furniture they buy, all on account of the big bargains. How surprised Hubby will be when he sees all the bargains. Hubby, however, throws the bargains out of the window together with the bargain hunter, but imagine his surprise when the bargain hunter and all the bargains come back through the window.

COPYRIGHT 1907

THE

Pay Train

Robbery

MANUFACTURED EXCLUSIVELY BY

S. LUBIN

MANUFACTURER OF

LIFE MOTION PICTURE MACHINES,
FILMS, SLIDES AND STEREOPTICONS.

19-21 South Eighth Street,
PHILADELPHIA, PA., U. S. A.

3000 X1 07

BARGAIN SALES

COPYRIGHTED 1907

LENGTH, 510 FEET

PRICE, $56.10

A big Department Store advertises "Bargain Sales." Before the doors are open an enormous crowd of women has congregated. It is wonderful to see how they fight at the different counters. We see them at the waist counter and at the corset counter. China, hats and groceries, pictures and furniture they buy, all on account of the big bargains. How surprised Hubby will be when he sees all the bargains. Hubby, however, throws the bargains out of the window together with the bargain hunter, but imagine his surprise when the bargain hunter and all the bargains come back through the window.

COPYRIGHT 1907

THE Pay Train

Robbery

MANUFACTURED EXCLUSIVELY BY

S. LUBIN

MANUFACTURER OF

LIFE MOTION  PICTURE MACHINES,
FILMS, SLIDES AND STEREOPTICONS.

19-21 South Eighth Street,
PHILADELPHIA, PA., U. S. A.

5000 XI '07

The Pay-Train Robbery.

LENGTH, 855 FEET.

PRICE, $94.05.

Scene 1—Father and Son leaving for Business.
The president and his son go to the office.

Scene 2—Betraying his Father's Confidence.
While the father is busy, the son steals to gamble.

Scene 3—Lost Again.
With the ill gotten money, he goes to a race track. He bets and loses again.

Scene 4—Planning the Robbery.
Fearing exposure and not knowing how to replace the stolen money, he decides to hold up the Pay-Train.

Scene 5—Delivering the Money to the Pay-Master.

When the money is delivered to the Pay-Master, the son follows him with companions to whom he entrusted his scheme.

Scene 6—Disguised as Workmen.

The four Gentlemen-Robbers disguise themselves as workmen. They walk the tracks until they come to the place which they have selected for the Pay-Train Robbery.

Scene 7—Preparing the Train Robbery.

The robbers cut the rails, lay a wooden plank across the rails, and thus bring the train to wreck age.

Scene 8—Wiring the Disaster.

The Train-Master is seen wiring the disaster to the station.

Scene 9—Rover flags the Superintendent's train.

The telegraph line being cut, the flagman sends his dog to flag the train.

Scene 10—Captured.

Luckily nobody has been hurt. The robbers are captured and brought before the president of the road. The old man is nearly overcome with grief when he finds that one of the robbers to be his son.

COPYRIGHT 1907

THE MAKING

OF

A

Modern Newspaper

S. LUBIN

MANUFACTURER OF

LIFE MOTION PICTURE MACHINES,
FILMS. SLIDES AND STEREOPTICONS.

19-21 South Eighth Street,
PHILADELPHIA, PA., U. S. A.

2790. 81. 07